OH&S Bulletin December 2006

Feedback on revised OHS Management System – final reminder!

The OHS & Workers Compensation section has revised the OHSMS and is currently seeking comment by 31st Dec 2006. Your feedback in this consultation process is very important and can be provided by selecting the “monkey” icon at the bottom of each web page. Instructions on how to provide feedback are given. The link for the OHSMS can be found at <http://www.hr.unsw.edu.au/ohswc/ohs/ohsms.html>.

Safety Awards 2006:

The UNSW Staff Safety Awards have been launched in 2006 to promote and recognise Excellence, Innovation and Leadership in occupational health and safety within the University. Nominations close on Friday 22nd December. See details at: <http://www.hr.unsw.edu.au/ohswc/safetyawards.html>

Academic representatives on OHS Committee:

If you are an academic staff member and have an interest in the occupational health and safety of the School and associated centres, we need you on our committee! Please contact Jacqui Miller (Jacqui.miller@unsw.edu.au) for further details.

New Occupational Health & Safety and Worker's Compensation Unit:

OHS&WC Unit (formerly the Risk Management Unit) has moved to the Chancellery Level 1, North Wing and is now part of Human Resources.

Updated OH&S forms:

Links to the new OH&S forms are available on our OH&S page: <http://www.sphcm.med.unsw.edu.au/SPHCMWeb.nsf/page/SPHCMOHS>
The forms that you may need to use are:

- OH01 form to report hazards eg air conditioning problems
- OH02 form to report incidents and work-related injuries.

If you have questions about this process, please contact us.

OH&S Audit:

An internal audit of OH&S systems was carried out at Prince of Wales Clinical School and School of Medical Sciences highlighting areas of non-compliance, and providing useful feedback in preparation for the Work Cover Audit of the Faculty expected in February 2007.

Training:

OH&S training dates for 2007 will be available early in 2007

Next Bulletin:

We are open to your suggestions for our March 2007 Bulletin!
