

Kate Dunn gave a presentation at the School meeting on the 5th June. She covered two Library services; the Library Toolbar and New Books Feeds:

Library Toolbar

The Library toolbar brings the UNSW Library to you, wherever you are and it looks like this:

- To download the Library Toolbar to a computer with Firefox click here: Visit <http://libx.org/editions/45/48/45486C11/libx-45486C11.xpi>
- To download the Library Toolbar to a computer with Internet Explorer click here: <http://libx.org/editions/45/48/45486C11/libx-45486C11.exe> (You must have administrator rights on your computer or ask someone from IT to download it.)
- For more information on how to download the Toolbar go to: <http://info.library.unsw.edu.au/skills/pdf/UNSWLibraryToolbarGuide.pdf>
- NB: You can drag search terms onto the Scholar icon to search Google Scholar.

New Books Feeds

- To keep up to date with new Public Health & Community Medicine books coming into the Library visit: <http://info.library.unsw.edu.au/web/resources/rss/rsslist.html> and click on the Public Health and Health Services link or access this via the School website.
- To set up an RSS feed click on the orange RSS button. If you use Firefox or Internet Explorer 7 new RSS feeds will appear in your browser e.g.:
